Rules and Regulations

Spaces will be reserved on a first-come, first-served basis. No space is considered reserved until we receive your signed registration.

There is a limited amount of space available. Please bring your own canopy or tent, tables and chairs. Your booth space is approximately 10'x10'.

Check-In for the Adobo Cook-Off will begin at 8:00 a.m. the morning of the Cook-Off. You will be shown your reserved location at this time. Tents, tables and chairs can be set up immediately after check-in. All tents must be up by 9:00 a.m.

Vehicles will be allowed in the area to unload needed supplies/materials. The Cook-Off will begin at 9:00 a.m., at which time no vehicle will be allowed in the area. After unloading, participants are to move their vehicles away from the area into a designated parking area.

Participants of the Adobo Cook-Off agree to relieve sponsor, Saint Theresa Church and their employees, representative and volunteers, from any and all liability resulting from fire, theft and/or accident of any cause. All property brought to the Cook-Off area by participants will be at the risk and responsibility of the team.

Judging will be at 1:00 p.m., with awards presented immediately after winners are announced.

Participants are responsible for cleaning up their space, removing all trash, and must be completely vacated by 3:00 p.m.

One entry per contestant, one entry per team. Registration must be received in the church office by March 21, 2018.

Participants must keep booths as clean as possible. All trash must be put in trash bags and placed in dumpsters provided by the church.

Adobo may be cooked from scratch off site or on site. All adobo for the judges must be prepared in the open, in your assigned booth. Meat may be cut up prior to start of contest. The Cook-Off Committee has final say over space assignments. All cookers are responsible for their own tables, shades and propane cookers (wood fires are not allowed).

Cooks are to prepare and cook adobo in as sanitary a manner as possible. Cooking conditions are subject to inspection by the head judge or his/her designee.

We love animals, but please leave your pets at home.

By signing this agreement, you, and your team, agree to all the rules as stated above.
