PLEASE NOTE

The 10:00 am Mass on Sunday, June 24th will be celebrated by a newly ordained (this past Saturday!) priest whose family lives in the Sugar Land area, and who is part of a Clerical Society (a group of priests in the Roman Catholic Church) called the Priestly Fraternity of Saint Peter (FSSP).

Fr. Stephen Braun, FSSP

This society has as one of its aims the wider sharing of the “Extraordinary Form” of the Mass. Some have asked what this means and how to prepare for it. This week, we continue to explore some basic aspects of this (see previous bulletins for more info!).

I heard there's a lot of silence, especially during the Eucharistic Prayer (after the Creed). Does the congregation do anything?

Yes: They pray the Mass—the highest form of human activity possible.

Participation in the Mass does not mean only or even primarily physical activity. The author Evelyn Waugh put it this way: "Participation in the Mass does not mean hearing our own voice. It means God hearing our voices. Only He knows who is participating at Mass. I participate in a work of art when I study it and love it silently. No need to shout."

Yes, there is much silence in the Extraordinary Form. This is good and healthy, says Fr. Kenneth Myers of the Diocese of Pittsburgh: "Silence in the Mass is perhaps [our] greatest need because we so desperately need to peer into our souls, to enter into our own hearts, and to see there what God himself sees. In the silence of the Mass, we can listen to God's voice [and raise it back to Him]."

At the same time, in a High Mass, like the one this coming June, there will also be plenty of congregational singing, from the principal parts of the Mass—e.g., the Kyrie, the Gloria, the Credo, the Sanctus, and the Agnus Dei —to the various responses (Et cum spiritu tuo, to take one example).

Above all, participation involves an interior union with the Sacrifice on the Altar. Cardinal Ratzinger wrote, "God himself is acting and [we] are drawn into that action of God." Any other activity is purely a side note to this primary purpose.

Some have also asked: Do I kneel for Communion at that Mass? Do I receive on the tongue? Do I say “Amen”?

Yes, yes, and no. You do kneel (if you're able) and you must receive on the tongue. The Extraordinary Form places great emphasis on the careful handling of the host. You will notice, for example, that from the moment of the consecration until the wiping of the sacred vessels, the priest may not separate his thumb and forefinger, lest even the smallest particle fall to the ground. It follows, then, that the host would be placed directly on the tongue.

The person receiving does not say "Amen." The priest says a prayer as he places the host on the communicant's tongue. He does not say, "The body of Christ." Instead he says (for you), "May the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve your soul unto everlasting life. Amen."

Papa Francisco en S. Marta: no volver a los esquemas del mundo, quitan la libertad

En la Misa matutina en la Casa de Santa Marta el Papa exhorta a caminar hacia la santidad y a no retroceder a los esquemas del mundo

Debora Donnini-Ciudad del Vaticano

En los momentos de la prueba, no volver a los esquemas del mundo que quitan la libertad. Es necesario, en cambio, permanecer en el camino hacia la santidad. Lo recordó el Papa en la Misa matutina celebrada en la Capilla de la Casa de Santa Marta

Ser santo no es tener cara de estampita

El Papa parte de la Primera Lectura del día (1 Pe 1, 10-16) en la que Pedro invita a caminar hacia la santidad: es la llamada a la santidad, que es la llamada normal, es la llamada a vivir como cristianos, es decir, vivir como cristiano es lo mismo que decir "vivir como santo". Muchas veces pensamos en la santidad como algo extraordinario, como tener visiones u oraciones elevadísimas... o algunos piensan que ser santo significa tener una cara de estampita,...no. Ser santos es otra cosa. Es caminar en esto que el Señor nos dice sobre la santidad. Y , ¿qué es caminar sobre la santidad? Y.. Pedro lo dice: "pongan toda su esperanza en la gracia que recibirán cuando se manifieste Jesucristo".

Caminar hacia la luz

"Caminar hacia la santidad" consiste, por lo tanto, en caminar hacia aquella gracia que nos viene al encuentro, caminar hacia la esperanza, estar en tensión hacia el encuentro con Jesucristo. Es como cuando se camina hacia la luz: muchas veces no se ve bien el camino porque la luz nos encandila. "Pero no nos equivocamos – nota el Papa – porque vemos la luz y sabemos el camino". Cuando, en cambio, se camina con la luz a la espalda, se ve bien el camino: en realidad, sin embargo, ante nosotros hay sombra, no luz".

No regresar a los esquemas del mundo

Para caminar hacia la santidad es necesario "estar libres y sentirse libres". El Papa advierte, sin embargo, que hay muchas cosas que nos esclavizan. Por esto Pedro exhorta a no conformarse a los deseos de un tiempo "cuando vivían en la ignorancia". También Pablo en la Primera Carta a los Romanos dice: "no se conformen", lo que significa: "no entren en los esquemas": "Esta es la traducción correcta de estos consejos – no entren en los esquemas del mundo, no entren en los esquemas, en el modo de pensar mundial, en el modo de pensar y de juzgar que te ofrece el mundo, porque esto te quita la libertad". Y para caminar sobre la santidad, es necesario ser libres: la libertad de ir mirando hacia la luz, de ir hacia adelante. Y cuando nosotros regresamos, como dice aquí, al modo de vivir que teníamos antes del encuentro con Jesucristo, o cuando volvemos a los esquemas del mundo, perdimos la libertad".

Sin libertad no se puede ser santos

En el Libro del Éxodo se ve, de hecho, cómo muchas veces el Pueblo de Dios no ha querido mirar hacia adelante, hacia la salvación, sino volver hacia atrás. Se lamentaban e "imaginaban la vida bella que pasaban en Egipto", donde comían cebollas y carne, evidencia Francisco. "En los momentos de dificultad, el pueblo vuelve retrocede", "pierde la libertad": es verdad que comían cosas buenas, pero en "el comedor de la esclavitud". En los momentos de prueba, nosotros siempre tenemos la tentación de mirar hacia atrás, de mirar los esquemas del mundo, los esquemas que teníamos antes de iniciar el camino de la salvación: sin libertad. Y sin libertad no se puede ser santos. La libertad es la condición para poder caminar viendo la luz adelante. No entrar en los esquemas de la mundanidad: caminar hacia adelante, mirando la luz que es la promesa, en esperanza; ésta es aquella promesa como pueblo de Dios en el desierto: cuando miraban adelante iban bien; cuando sentían nostalgia porque no podían comer las cosas buenas que les daban allí, se equivocaban y olvidaban que allí no tenían libertad.

Los esquemas mundanos prometen todo y no dan nada

El Señor, por lo tanto, llama a la santidad de todos los días. Y hay dos parámetros para saber si estamos en camino hacia la santidad: primero que todo, si miramos hacia la luz del Señor con la esperanza de encontrarlo, y, luego, si cuando llegan las pruebas, miramos hacia adelante y no perdemos la libertad refugiándonos en los esquemas mundanos, que "te prometen todo y no te dan nada". "Sean santos porque yo soy Santo": es el mandamiento del Señor. El Papa Francisco lo recuerda de nuevo en la conclusión, para exhortar a pedir la gracia de entender bien qué cosa es el camino de la santidad: "camino de libertad pero en tensión de esperanza hacia el encuentro con Jesús". Y también, a entender bien qué es volver hacia los "esquemas mundanos que teníamos todos nosotros, antes del encuentro con Jesús".

We will have an excellent dinner, drinks, fellowship, and an opportunity to learn and discuss the reasons we are Catholic. The cost is $10 per person (pay at the door). Any and all adults are welcome. Dates are not necessary; this is just an opportunity to have a good meal and a good time.

Free Child Care is Available IF you RSVP by Wednesday, June 6th.

Is Date Night for couples or for singles? Both. Date Night is for adults. We just call it Date Night, because it is a chance for people to get out of the house and have a good time.

Is Date Night only for Catholics? No. We are going to be exploring the beauty and richness of the Catholic faith, but this is open to anybody who is open to it.

Is Date Night only for St. Theresa Parishioners? No. Feel free to bring friends from other parishes... provided you RSVP.

Do I need to have a date?
No. Many people come alone.

Why must I RSVP? Dinner is prepared from scratch by volunteers, and we want to provide the best experience possible.

Be kind... RSVP.

PRAYER FOR MY FAMILY

Loving God, I offer thanks for the gift of my family. Help us to work together for peace and harmony in our relationships.

Grant us the grace to accept each other's faults and weaknesses. Protect us from harsh words and hurt feelings.

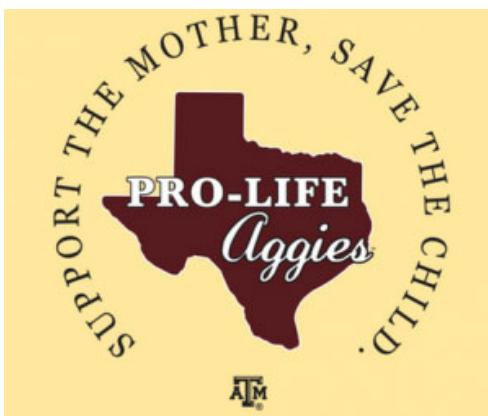

Assist us to encourage one another's strengths and abilities. Lead us to mutual understanding and support.

May we always forgive each other's failings and rejoice in one another's successes.

Watch over my family, Dear Lord. Bless us with good health and happiness. Fill our hearts with love, patience and kindness for one another, now and always. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN

Last weekend marked the start of the annual "baby bottle" campaign. All proceeds collected will directly benefit pregnant and parenting college students in great financial distress, who have chosen life for their children in the midst of unplanned pregnancies. Please pick up a bottle this weekend and drop off filled bottles to any Mass on June 9th/10th.

O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of your redemption.
