FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR'S DESK

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We are in the midst of some very strange times. After six weeks without public Mass we were allowed to resume Masses (albeit with a limited capacity) last weekend. I know that there are many of you who are still uncomfortable coming to Church at this time, and that is okay!

There has been some distressing news in the Catholic Church lately as parishes and dioceses look for ways of resuming some kind of public worship and return to administering the Sacraments to the faithful. I have heard--with horror--stories of parishes offering Communion in throw away paper cups that people can come and take. In other places, the Most Blessed Sacrament was placed in little plastic baggies that people could come and take and then self-communicate. What they did with the cups or bags I do not know.

Despite being well intentioned, it is hard to see how these attempts do not involve the desecration of the Eucharist, which is a most grave crime that (given certain circumstances) incurs an automatic excommunication reserved to the Holy See. Pray to God that Rome will intervene and put an end to this madness!

I have written before that actions are powerful teachers, and if we handle the Eucharist in a casual or trivial manner, we are teaching ourselves and our children that It is a trivial thing. With actions like this is it any wonder that only 30% of Catholics believe in Jesus' True and Real Presence in the Eucharist? The Eucharist is not something to be handed out and taken as some kind of token to make us feel better. The Eucharist is the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus. It is the same Body that hung on the Cross and the same Body that rose from the Tomb. Therefore, even the smallest particle is of infinite worth. What happens to the particles of Our Lord's Body and Blood that are left in those cups and bags?

As this health crisis continues and we slowly return to the public celebration of Mass and distribution of Communion, please remember to take care of each particle of the Blessed Sacrament, particularly if you choose to receive Communion on the hand. Not only the palm that receives Our Lord, but also the fingers may have particles that remain and the appropriate action at that point would be to consume them.

Communion on the tongue is still permitted. Jesus loves you so much. Whether you receive Communion in the hand or on the tongue, I invite you to increase your reverence and devotion to Him in the Blessed Sacrament.

May God bless you,
Fr. David Angelino

DE NUESTRO ADMINISTRADOR

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Estamos en medio de unos tiempos muy extraños. Después de seis semanas sin misa pública, se nos permitió reanudar misas (aunque con capacidad limitada) el fin de semana pasado. Sé que hay muchos de ustedes que todavía se sienten incómodos viendo a la Iglesia en este momento, ¡y eso está bien!

Últimamente ha habido algunas noticias angustiantes en la Iglesia Católica a medida que las parroquias y las diócesis buscan formas de reanudar algún tipo de culto público y volver a administrar los sacramentos a los fieles. He escuchado, con horror, historias de parroquias que ofrecen la comunión en vasos de papel que la gente puede venir y tomar. En otros lugares, el Santísimo Sacramento fue colocado en pequeñas bolsas de plástico que la gente podía venir y tomar y luego comunicarse. Lo que hicieron con las tazas o bolsas no lo sé.

A pesar de estar bien intencionado, es difícil ver cómo estos intentos no implican la profanación de la Eucaristía, que es un crimen muy grave que (dadas ciertas circunstancias) incurre en una excomunión automática reservada a la Santa Sede. ¡Reza a Dios para que Roma intervenga y ponga fin a esta locura!

He escrito antes que las acciones son maestros poderosos, y si manejamos la Eucaristía de manera casual o trivial, nos estamos enseñando a nosotros mismos y a nuestros hijos que es algo trivial. Con acciones como esta, ¿es de extrañar que solo el 30% de los católicos crean en la verdadera y verdadera presencia de Jesús en la Eucaristía? La Eucaristía no es algo para ser entregado y tomado como una especie de ficha para hacernos sentir mejor. La Eucaristía es el cuerpo, la sangre, el alma y la divinidad de Jesús. Es el mismo Cuerpo que colgaba de la Cruz y el mismo Cuerpo que se levantó de la Tumba. Por lo tanto, incluso la partícula más pequeña tiene un valor infinito. ¿Qué les sucede a las partículas del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Nuestro Señor que quedan en esas tazas y bolsas?

A medida que esta crisis de salud continúa y lentamente volvemos a la celebración pública de la Misa y la distribución de la Comunión, recuerde cuidar cada partícula del Santísimo Sacramento, particularmente si elige recibir la Comunión en la mano. No solo la palma que recibe a Nuestro Señor, sino también los dedos pueden tener partículas que permanecen y la acción apropiada en ese punto sería consumirlas.

La comunión en la lengua todavía está permitida. Jesús los ama mucho. Ya sea que reciban la Comunión en la mano o en la lengua, les invito a aumentar su reverencia y devoción a Él en el Santísimo Sacramento.

Que Dios los bendiga,
Padre David Angelino

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. GUIDE FOR CONFESSION / GUÍA PARA LA CONFESIÓN

HOW TO GO TO CONFESSION

In order to make a good confession, we first examine our conscience, asking God's help that we might know our sins and repent of them.

Rite of Reconciliation

Priest: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Penitent: Amen.

Penitent: Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. It has been (how long?) since my last confession. My sins are: (confess your sins)

Priest: (gives you spiritual counsel and assigns a penance in atonement for your sins)

Penitent: (Pray an Act of Contrition, for example):

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

—or—

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven, and the pains of hell; but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, Who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life.

Priest: The priest prays the formula of absolution. At the conclusion, say, “Amen.”

Priest: Go in peace.

Penitent: Thanks be to God. (do your penance as soon as possible).

COMO CONFESARSE

Para confesarse bien, hacemos una Buena examen de conciencia, pidiendo la ayuda de Dios para saber y arrepentir de nuestros pecados.

Rito de Reconciliación

Sacerdote: En el nombre del Padre, del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo.

Penitente: Amen.

Penitente: Bendígame, Padre, porque he pecado. Mi última confesión fue... (diga al Padre cuanto tiempo de su última confesión). Mis pecados son..

Sacerdote: (El sacerdote te aconsejara y te dará la penitencia)

Penitente: (Reza el Acto de Contrición):

Señor Jesucristo, Hijo de Dios, ten piedad de mi, un pecador.

—o—

Dios mío, me arrepiento de todo corazón de todos lo malo que he hecho y de lo bueno que he dejado de hacer; porque pecando te he ofendido a ti, que eres el sumo Bien y digno de amor por encima de todas las cosas. Propongo firmemente, con tu gracia, cumplir la penitencia, no volver a pecar y evitar las ocasiones de pecado. Perdóname, Señor, por los méritos de la Pasión de nuestro Salvador Jesucristo. Amén.

Sacerdote: El sacerdote hace una oración de absolución. A la conclusión diga: “Amen.”

Sacerdote: Puedes ir en paz.

Penitente: Gracias a Dios. (Haz la penitencia cuando salga del confesionario).

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Almighty every-living God, constantly accomplish the Paschal Mystery within us, that those you were pleased to make new in Holy Baptism may,
under your protective care, bear much fruit
and come to the joys of life eternal.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

“Do not let your hearts be troubled” (John 14:1).
