The Doctrine of Purgatory

by Fr. John A. Hardon, S.J.

God created man that he might possess his Creator forever in the beatific vision. Those who die in the state of enmity toward God are deprived of this happiness. Between these extremes are people who are neither estranged from God nor wholly dedicated to Him when they die. What will be their lot after death?

The response of faith is that nothing defiled can enter heaven (Rev 21:27), and therefore anyone less than perfect must first be cleansed before he can be admitted to the vision of God....

Those In Purgatory

When we speak of the souls of the just in purgatory we are referring to those that leave the body in the state of sanctifying grace and are therefore destined by right to enter heaven. Their particular judgment was favorable, although conditional: provided they are first cleansed to appear before God. The condition is always fulfilled.

The poor souls in purgatory still have the stains of sin within them. This means two things. First, it means that the souls have not yet paid the temporal penalty due, either for venial sins, or for mortal sins whose guilt was forgiven before death. It may also mean the venial sins themselves, which were not forgiven either as to guilt or punishment before death...

We should also distinguish between the expiatory punishments that the poor souls in purgatory pay and the penalties of satisfaction which souls in a state of grace pay before death. Whereas before death a soul can cleanse itself by freely choosing to suffer for its sins, and can gain merit for this suffering, a soul in purgatory can not so choose and gains no merit for the suffering and no increase in glory. Rather, it is cleansed according to the demands of Divine Justice.

We are not certain whether purgatory is a place or a space in which souls are cleansed. The Church has never given a definite answer to this question. The important thing to understand is that it is a state or condition in which souls undergo purification.

The Catholic practice of offering prayers and sacrifices for the dead is known as offering suffrages. These suffrages are offered both by the individuals and by the Church. They are intended to obtain for the poor soul, either partial or total remission of punishment still to be endured.

Who are the faithful that can pray effectively for the poor souls? They are primarily all baptized Christians but may be anyone in a state of grace. At least the state of grace is probably necessary to gain indulgences for the dead.

The angels and saints in heaven can also help these souls in purgatory and obtain a mitigation of their pains. When they do so, the process is not by way of merit or of satisfaction, but only through petition. A study of the Church's official prayers reveals that saints and the angelic spirits are invoked for the Church Suffering (i.e., those in purgatory), but always to intercede and never otherwise.

La Doctrina del Purgatorio

por el Padre John A. Hardon, S.J.

Dios creó al hombre para que pudiera poseer a su Creador para siempre en la visión beatífica. Aquellos que mueren en estado de enemistad hacia Dios se ven privados de esta felicidad. Entre estos extremos están las personas que no están alejadas de Dios ni totalmente dedicadas a él cuando mueren. ¿Cuál será su suerte después de la muerte?

La respuesta de la fe es que nada contaminado puede entrar al cielo (Apocalipsis 21:27), y por lo tanto, cualquier persona que no sea perfecta debe ser limpiada antes de que pueda ser admitida en la visión de Dios....

Aquellos en el purgatorio

Cuando hablamos de las almas de los justos del purgatorio nos referimos a las que dejan el cuerpo en estado de gracia santificante y por tanto están destinadas por derecho a entrar en el cielo. Su juicio particular fue favorable, aunque condicional: siempre que fueran limpiados primero para comparecer ante Dios. La condición siempre se cumple.

Las pobres almas del purgatorio todavía tienen las manchas del pecado dentro de ellas. Esto significa dos cosas. Primero, significa que las almas aún no han pagado la pena temporal debida, ya sea por pecados veniales, o por pecados mortales cuya culpa fue perdonada antes de la muerte. También puede referirse a los propios pecados veniales, que no fueron perdonados ni en cuanto a la culpabilidad ni al castigo antes de la muerte ...

También debemos distinguir entre los castigos expiatorios que pagan las pobres almas del purgatorio y las penas de satisfacción que pagan las almas en estado de gracia antes de morir. Mientras que antes de la muerte un alma puede limpiarse eligiendo libremente sufrir por sus pecados, y puede ganar mérito por este sufrimiento, un alma en el purgatorio no puede elegir así y no gana mérito por el sufrimiento ni aumento de gloria. Más bien, se limpia de acuerdo con las demandas de la Justicia Divina.

No estamos seguros de si el purgatorio es un lugar o un espacio en el que se limpian las almas. La Iglesia nunca ha dado una respuesta definitiva a esta pregunta. Lo importante de entender es que es un estado o condición en la que las almas se purifican.

La práctica católica de ofrecer oraciones y sacrificios por los muertos se conoce como ofrecer sufragios. Estos sufragios son ofrecidos tanto por las personas como por la Iglesia. Están destinados a obtener para la pobre alma, la remisión parcial o total del castigo que aún debe soportar.

¿Quiénes son los fieles que pueden orar eficazmente por las pobres almas? Principalmente todos aquellos que son cristianos bautizados, pero puede ser cualquier persona en estado de gracia. Al menos el estado de gracia probablemente sea necesario para obtener indulgencias para los muertos.

Los ángeles y los santos del cielo también pueden ayudar a estas almas del purgatorio y obtener una mitigación de sus dolores. Cuando lo hacen, el proceso no es por mérito o satisfacción, sino solo por petición. Un estudio de las oraciones oficiales de la Iglesia revela que los santos y los espíritus angelicales son invocados para el sufrimiento de la Iglesia (es decir, los del purgatorio), pero siempre para interceder y nunca de otra manera.

THANKSGIVING AFTER MASS

I thank you, holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God, who deigned to feast me, sinful and unworthy servant, with the precious body and blood of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, not for any merit of mine, but only because of your merciful goodness. And I pray that this Holy Communion, far from condemning me to punishment, may bring about my pardon and salvation, encompassing me with the armor of faith and the shield of a good will. By it let my vices be done away, all lustful desires extinguished. May it advance me in charity, patience, humility, obedience, and every other virtue. Let it be strong defense against the wiles of all my enemies, visible and invisible, allaying for me every disturbance of flesh and spirit, binding me firmly to you, the one true God, and bringing my last hour to a happy close. I pray, too, that it may be your pleasure to call my sinful self one day to that banquet, wonderful past all telling, where you, with your Son and the Holy Spirit, feast your saints with the vision of yourself, who are true light, the fulfillment of all desires, the joy that knows no ending, gladness unalloyed, and perfect bliss: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR MY FAMILY

Loving God, I offer thanks for the gift of my family. Help us to work together for peace and harmony in our relationships.

Grant us the grace to accept each other's faults and weaknesses. Protect us from harsh words and hurt feelings. Assist us to encourage one another's strengths and abilities. Lead us to mutual understanding and support.

May we always forgive each other's failings and rejoice in one another's successes.

Watch over my family, Dear Lord. Bless us with good health and happiness. Fill our hearts with love, patience and kindness for one another, now and always. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Almighty and merciful God, graciously keep from us all adversity, so that, unhindered in mind and body alike, we may pursue in freedom of heart the things that are yours.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

“Thus we shall always be with the Lord” (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18).
