FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In just a week and a half we will be entering into the holy season of Lent and will hear again on Ash Wednesday the call to perform works of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. In the past, every day during Lent (except Sundays) were days of fasting. Instead of requiring every day to be a day of fasting, the current requirement is that every day during Lent (and all Fridays throughout the year that are not Holy Days) are days of “penance”, but what that consists of is left up to the individual.

Penance, or mortification, is necessary for our growth in the spiritual life. Jesus speaks to the necessity of penance in Luke 13:3 “No, I say to you: but unless you shall do penance, you shall all likewise perish.” Fr. Saudreau notes that “It would be a real feat in the spiritual domain to renounce everything, and yet deprive ourselves of nothing.”

We often think of penance as something bad that we have to endure because the Church tells us to. Penance rather “sets the heart free, gives liberty to the soul, and a sounder judgment, and one more open to holy inspirations, to the Spirit....By every sacrifice God is made dearer to us...God becomes dearer, because a sacrifice is an act of love, and because every act of charity increases this beautiful virtue within us. By loving, we learn to love. Again, it makes God dearer to us, because it detaches us from the creature, and because the heart, to which love is as essential as thought to the mind, will love God the more in proportion as it has less affection for earthly things” (Fr. Saudreau, The Degrees of the Spiritual Life).

We can begin to prepare for Lent now by planning what acts of love (penances) we will take on to grow in the love of God and detach ourselves from the passing things of this life. Below are some suggestions that we could all work on from Fr. Saudreau and some that I added.

May God bless you,
Fr. David Angelino

Ideas for Lent:

- Not to try to know everything; to mortify my curiosity by paying no heed to useless things and those which do not concern me.
- Not “scrolling” through social media, the news, YouTube, etc; giving them up entirely for Lent.
- To mortify my eyes and not stopping to look at things needlessly; particularly in church not to look around.
- Rising immediately in the morning; not hitting the “snooze”
- To accept discomforts and being deprived of small indulgences or pleasures uncomplainingly.
- If I am very anxious to say some unnecessary thing, not to say it.
- To do what I have to do at once without putting it off. If I have some disagreeable duty or occupation, to do it first, instead of beginning with what I like best.
- Praying the rosary every day.
- Reading Scripture every day.
- Going to Mass an extra day during the week.
- Remaining in prayer after receiving Communion and after Mass has ended to make a more profound Thanksgiving.

DE NUESTRO PÁRROCO

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

En apenas una semana y media estaremos entrando en el tiempo santo de la Cuaresma y volveremos a escuchar el Miércoles de Ceniza el llamado a realizar obras de oración, ayuno y limosna. En el pasado, todos los días de Cuaresma (excepto los domingos) eran días de ayuno. En lugar de exigir que cada día sea un día de ayuno, el requisito actual es que todos los días de Cuaresma (y todos los viernes del año que no sean Días Santos) sean días de “penitencia”, pero en qué consiste se deja a opción del individuo.

La penitencia o mortificación es necesaria para nuestro crecimiento en la vida espiritual. Jesús habla de la necesidad de la penitencia en Lucas 13: 3: “No, os digo que, si no hacéis penitencia, todos pereceréis igualmente”. Padre Saudreau señala que “sería una verdadera hazaña en el dominio espiritual renunciar a todo y, sin embargo, privarnos de nada”.

A menudo pensamos en la penitencia como algo malo que tenemos que soportar porque la Iglesia nos lo pide. Penitencia más bien “Libera el corazón, da libertad al alma, y un juicio más sano, y uno más abierto a las santas inspiraciones, al Espíritu ... Por cada sacrificio Dios se hace más querido para nosotros ... Dios se vuelve más querido, porque un sacrificio es un acto de amor, y porque todo acto de caridad acrecienta esta hermosa virtud en nosotros. Al amar, aprendemos a amar. Una vez más, nos hace más queridos a Dios, porque nos separa de la criatura, y porque el corazón, para el que el amor es tan esencial como el pensamiento para la mente, amará a Dios tanto más en la medida en que tenga menos afecto por las cosas terrenales”. (P. Saudreau, Los grados de la vida espiritual).

Podemos empezar a prepararnos para la Cuaresma ahora planificando qué actos de amor (penitencias) haremos para crecer en el amor de Dios y desprendernos de las cosas pasajeras de esta vida. A continuación, se presentan algunas sugerencias en las que todos podríamos trabajar del P. Saudreau y algunos que agregué.

Que Dios los bendiga,
Padre David Angelino

Ideas para la Cuaresma:

- No intentar saberlo todo; para mortificar mi curiosidad sin hacer caso de las cosas inútiles y las que no me conciernen.
- No "desplazarse" por las redes sociales, las noticias, YouTube, etc; entregándolos por completo para la Cuaresma.
- Para mortificar mis ojos y no detenerme a mirar las cosas innecesariamente; particularmente en la iglesia para no mirar alrededor.
- Levantarse inmediatamente por la mañana; no presionar el "posponer"
- Aceptar las incomodidades y la privación de pequeñas indulgencias o placeres sin quejarse.
- Si estoy muy ansioso por decir algo innecesario, no lo diga.
- Hacer lo que tengo que hacer de una vez sin posponerlo. Si tengo algún deber u ocupación desagradable, debo hacerlo primero, en lugar de comenzar con lo que más me gusta.
- Rezar el rosario todos los días.
- Leer las Escrituras todos los días.
- Ir a misa un día extra durante la semana.
- Permanecer en oración después de recibir la Comunión y después de que finalice la Misa para hacer una Acción de Gracias más profunda.

PRAYER BEFORE MASS

Almighty and ever-living God, I approach the sacrament of Your only-begotten Son Our Lord Jesus Christ. I come sick to the doctor of life, unclean to the fountain of mercy, blind to the radiance of eternal light, and poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. Lord, in your great generosity, heal my sickness, wash away my defilement, enlighten my blindness, enrich my poverty, and clothe my nakedness. May I receive the bread of angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords, with humble reverence, with the purity and faith, the repentance and love, and the determined purpose that will help to bring me to salvation. May I receive the sacrament of the Lord's Body and Blood, and its reality and power. Kind God, may I receive the Body of Your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, born from the womb of the Virgin Mary, and so be received into His mystical body and numbered among His members. Loving Father, as on my earthly pilgrimage I now receive Your beloved Son under the veil of a sacrament, may I one day see him face to face in glory, who lives and reigns with You for ever. Amen.

Saint Thomas Aquinas

THANKSGIVING AFTER MASS

I thank you, holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God, who deigned to feast me, sinful and unworthy servant, with the precious body and blood of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, not for any merit of mine, but only because of your merciful goodness. And I pray that this Holy Communion, far from condemning me to punishment, may bring about my pardon and salvation, encompassing me with the armor of faith and the shield of a good will. By it let my vices be done away, all lustful desires extinguished. May it advance me in charity, patience, humility, obedience, and every other virtue. Let it be strong defense against the wiles of all my enemies, visible and invisible, allaying for me every disturbance of flesh and spirit, binding me firmly to you, the one true God, and bringing my last hour to a happy close. I pray, too, that it may be your pleasure to call my sinful self one day to that banquet, wonderful past all telling, where you, with your Son and the Holy Spirit, feast your saints with the vision of yourself, who are true light, the fulfillment of all desires, the joy that knows no ending, gladness unalloyed, and perfect bliss: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unfailing care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

"He went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee" (Mark 1:39).
