FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I have spent a good deal of time this week interviewing teens who are preparing for Confirmation this summer. The interviews are to determine whether they are prepared to receive the sacrament because I will have to testify at the Mass regarding their preparation. Confirmation is the last of the three sacraments of initiation (along with Baptism and the Most Holy Eucharist) that completes the graces of Baptism by a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit and empowers one to witness to the faith.

I ask several questions about their preparation and desire to be Confirmed. I typically also ask about the saint that they have chosen and why. One teen that I interviewed related how someone had shared with her that life ought to be a stairway going towards God and Confirmation was a step on that journey. This seemed like a good analogy and I asked what steps there are beyond Confirmation.

The Baltimore Catechism, in answer to the question “What must we do to gain the happiness of heaven?”, answers that “we must know, love, and serve God in this world.” It continues that “We learn to know, love, and serve God from Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who teaches us through the Catholic Church” and that the chief truths which the Church teaches are contained in the Creed.

Learning these truths is an essential first step, but they must also be put into practice so that we may love and serve God as well. We put them into practice or advance on the stairway towards God especially through our reception of the sacraments (specifically Confession and Holy Communion). St. Thomas Aquinas says that the chief cause of growing in love for God--after devout reception of the Sacraments--is prayer, specifically meditation which is also called mental prayer (ST II-II 82 a3).

In mental prayer we can consider God’s goodness which increases our love for Him. We can also consider our own shortcomings and recognize our need for Him. The parish website has a link to lots of great resources on meditation. You can find them here: <https://saintsprayers.net/Meditations.htm> and I would suggest beginning with the excellent work by St. Francis de Sales “How to Meditate”. It is the first link listed on the page and is followed by several meditations composed by St. Francis to introduce the practice of mental prayer.

To reach the happiness of heaven, we must grow in the knowledge and love of God and serve Him in this life. Prayer and the Sacraments are ways in which we can grow specifically in the love of God. Please follow the link above to learn more and please keep all those preparing for First Communion or Confirmation in your prayers.

May God bless you,

DE NUESTRO PÁRROCO

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

He pasado mucho tiempo esta semana entrevistando a adolescentes que se están preparando para la Confirmación este verano. Las entrevistas son para determinar si están preparados para recibir la Santa Cena porque tendré que testificar en la Misa sobre su preparación. La Confirmación es el último de los tres sacramentos de iniciación (junto con el Bautismo y la Santísima Eucaristía) que completa las gracias del Bautismo con un derramamiento especial del Espíritu Santo y le da poder a uno para dar testimonio de la fe.

Hago varias preguntas sobre su preparación y deseo de ser confirmados. Por lo general, también pregunto sobre el santo que han elegido y por qué. Una adolescente a la que entrevisté relató cómo alguien le había dicho que la vida debería ser una escalera hacia Dios y la Confirmación era un paso en ese viaje. Esto parecía una buena analogía y le pregunté qué pasos hay más allá de la Confirmación.

El Catecismo de Baltimore, en respuesta a la pregunta "¿Qué debemos hacer para obtener la felicidad del cielo?", Responde que "debemos conocer, amar y servir a Dios en este mundo". Continúa diciendo que "Aprendemos a conocer, amar y servir a Dios de Jesucristo, el Hijo de Dios, que nos enseña a través de la Iglesia Católica" y que las principales verdades que la Iglesia enseña están contenidas en el Credo.

Aprender estas verdades es un primer paso esencial, pero también deben ponerse en práctica para que podamos amar y servir a Dios también. Los ponemos en práctica o avanzamos en la escalera hacia Dios especialmente a través de nuestra recepción de los sacramentos (específicamente la Confesión y la Sagrada Comunión). Santo Tomás de Aquino dice que la causa principal para crecer en el amor por Dios, después de la devota recepción de los sacramentos, es la oración, específicamente la meditación, también llamada oración mental (ST II-II 82 a3).

En la oración mental podemos considerar la bondad de Dios que aumenta nuestro amor por Él. También podemos considerar nuestras propias deficiencias y reconocer nuestra necesidad de Él. Este es un enlace a una obra de San Francisco de Sales que es una introducción a la práctica de la oración mental: <https://trinidad.home.xs4all.nl/sales/devota.html> Sugeriría comenzar con la sección "Breve método para meditar" bajo la Segunda parte. Después de eso, puede buscar en la Primera Parte # 9-18 las meditaciones que compuso San Francisco.

Para alcanzar la felicidad del cielo, debemos crecer en el conocimiento y el amor de Dios y servirle en esta vida. La oración y los sacramentos son formas en las que podemos crecer específicamente en el amor de Dios. Siga el enlace anterior para obtener más información y mantenga en sus oraciones a todos los que se preparan para la Primera Comunión y la Confirmación.

Que Dios los bendiga,
Padre David Angelino

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Almighty ever-living God,
 constantly accomplish the Paschal Mystery within us, that those you were pleased to make new in Holy Baptism may,
 under your protective care, bear much fruit and come to the joys of life eternal.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.
