FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the passage from The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass by Fr. Gehr excerpted last week, Fr. Gehr notes that the virtue of Religion is composed of acts which are proper to it, such as prayer and adoration, and also the acts of all the other virtues. This is true in so far as they are performed by command of God, that is, by an inspiration from Him and from a motive of honoring Him, consequently made with a view and intention of giving glory to God. The virtue of religion can and must direct to the glory of God all the works and exercises of a Christian life, that it may become a perpetual divine service. "Whether you eat or drink, or whatsoever else you do, do all for the glory of God" (1 Cor. 10: 31).

The acts of all the virtues, when done with a view of glorifying God, all fall under the virtue of religion as well. One of the ways that we can consciously order our actions to God is to make a Morning Offering.

The practice of saying a particular prayer each morning to consecrate the day to God was popularized by Jesuits in France as part of a devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Jesuit seminarians were impatient to begin the work of evangelization in the missions and decided to consecrate their studies, knowing that even if they could not yet be out working directly for the salvation of souls, their good acts and sufferings born patiently could build up the Body of Christ.

Initially the prayer included offering up one's "prayers, works, and sufferings", but a nun encouraged Pope Pius XII to add "joy" to the list since we can offer up and unite ourselves with God in the trials but also in the joys of life.

The Morning Offering is intended to be prayed first thing in the morning, consecrating all of one's thoughts and actions to God. In this way, all the various virtuous acts we perform can be taken up by the virtue of religion and offered to God. There are numerous variations of the prayer, but the core idea is to begin the day by giving everything that one will do and undergo to God.

May God bless you,
Fr. David Angelino

Morning Offering

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer You my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of all my relatives and friends, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father this month. Amen.

DE NUESTRO PÁRROCO

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

En el pasaje del Santo Sacrificio de la Misa del P. Gehr extraído la semana pasada, el p. Gehr señala que la virtud de la religión se compone de actos que le son propios, como la oración y la adoración, y también los actos de todas las demás virtudes. Esto es cierto en la medida en que se realizan por mandato de Dios, es decir, por inspiración de Él y por motivo de honrarlo, por lo tanto, hechos con miras y la intención de dar gloria a Dios. La virtud de la religión puede y debe dirigir a la gloria de Dios todas las obras y ejercicios de la vida cristiana, para que se convierta en un servicio divino perpetuo. "Ya sea que coman o beban, o hagan cualquier otra cosa, háganlo todo para la gloria de Dios" (1 Corintios 10:31).

Los actos de todas las virtudes, cuando se hacen con el fin de glorificar a Dios, también caen bajo la virtud de la religión. Una de las formas en que podemos ordenar conscientemente nuestras acciones a Dios es hacer una ofrenda matutina.

La práctica de decir una oración particular cada mañana para consagrar el día a Dios fue popularizada por los jesuitas en Francia como parte de la devoción al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Los seminaristas jesuitas estaban impacientes por comenzar la obra de evangelización en las misiones y decidieron consagrar sus estudios, sabiendo que, aunque aún no pudieran estar trabajando directamente por la salvación de las almas, sus buenas obras y sufrimientos nacidos con paciencia podrían construir el Cuerpo de Cristo.

Inicialmente la oración incluía ofrecer "oraciones, obras y sufrimientos", pero una monja animó al Papa Pío XII a agregar "alegría" a la lista, ya que podemos ofrecernos y unirnos a Dios en las pruebas, pero también en las alegrías de la vida.

La Ofrenda de la Mañana está destinada a ser rezada a primera hora de la mañana, consagrando todos los pensamientos y acciones de uno a Dios. De esta manera, todos los diversos actos virtuosos que realizamos pueden ser asumidos en virtud de la religión y ofrecidos a Dios. Hay numerosas variaciones de la oración, pero la idea central es comenzar el día entregando todo lo que uno hará y lo que pasará a Dios.

Que Dios los bendiga,
Padre David Angelino

Ofrenda de la mañana

Oh, Jesús, por el Inmaculado Corazón de María, te ofrezco mis oraciones, obras, alegrías y sufrimientos de este día por todas las intenciones de Tu Sagrado Corazón, en unión con el Santo Sacrificio de la Misa en todo el mundo, en reparación por mis pecados, por las intenciones de todos mis familiares y amigos, y en particular por las intenciones del Santo Padre este mes. Amén.

She graduated summa cum laude and was recognized as the Outstanding Theology Student for her year.

In the classroom, Ms. Giandinoto aims to build a strong, Christ-centered community and she hopes to generate a deep sense of wonder within her students. As a Catholic educator, she feels that it is her duty and vocation to form young students into great leaders and saints who radiate Christ's courage and truth, and who exemplify the Blessed Mother's compassion and generosity. She is looking forward to teaching at Saint Theresa Catholic School and is grateful for the opportunity to provide students with an education that helps them to understand the meaning of man's journey on this earth and that prepares them to become the best versions of themselves.

Mrs. Nguyen graduated magna cum laude in 2012 with a master's degree in Theological Studies from the Institute for Pastoral Theology (IPT) through Ave Maria University. ## EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Draw near to your servants, O Lord, and answer their prayers with unceasing kindness, that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide, you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

"I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." (John 6:35)
