From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I have written in the past about the great treasure that the Church offers us in attaching indulgences to certain works and prayers that we can freely perform. We are all guilty of sin, and those sins have consequences which can be either eternal or temporal. Mortal sins, if they remain unconfessed at the moment of death, have eternal consequences of separating us from God. When sacramental absolution is given in Confession, the eternal punishment of those mortal sins is forgiven, but some temporal punishment might remain. Venial sins also have temporal punishment.

The temporal consequences or punishment of sin is the difficulty or disorder that sin introduces into our lives and our desires which make it harder to do good and easier to commit more sins. Temporal punishment can be satisfied by performing works of penance, prayer, indulgences, etc. Any temporal punishment that remains to be satisfied when a person dies is removed in the sufferings of Purgatory.

A plenary indulgence is the remission of all temporal punishment due to sin, the guilt of which has already been forgiven in sacramental confession. The usual requirements for a plenary indulgence are:

1. have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin;
2. receive the sacrament of confession;
3. receive the Holy Eucharist;
4. and recite prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father (an Our Father and Hail Mary are suggested).

In addition to these four requirements, some other work or prayer is also needed. Many of these are tied to specific days or events (such as the Year of Mercy), but others can be acquired daily. For example, the Church offers a plenary indulgence to those who

1. visit the Blessed Sacrament for adoration lasting at least a half hour;
2. devoutly recite the Marian rosary in a church or oratory, or in a family, or an association of the faithful, and in general when several of the faithful gather for some honest purpose
1. or read the Sacred Scriptures as spiritual reading for at least a half an hour.

Only one plenary indulgence can be gained each day and if any of the conditions necessary are lacking then the indulgence is only partial. The Apostolic Penitentiary notes that “[i]t is appropriate, but not necessary, that the sacramental Confession and especially Holy Communion and the prayer for the Pope's intentions take place on the same day that the indulged work is performed; but it is sufficient that these sacred rites and prayers be carried out within several days (about 20) before or after the indulged act.”

Indulgences are offered for our spiritual well-being and to spur us on to greater devotion and reception of the sacraments. It can be easy to forget the great blessing we have in them so we should ask our guardian angel to remind us, that we may lose the gifts that are offered to us and that we may grow closer to Our Lord.

May God bless you,
Fr. David Angelino

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

He escrito en el pasado sobre el gran tesoro que la Iglesia nos ofrece al adjuntar indulgencias a ciertas obras y oraciones que podemos realizar libremente. Todos somos culpables de pecado, y esos pecados tienen consecuencias que pueden ser eternas o temporales. Los pecados mortales, si quedan sin confesar en el momento de la muerte, tienen consecuencias eternas de separarnos de Dios. Cuando se da la absolución sacramental en la Confesión, se perdona la pena eterna de esos pecados mortales, pero puede quedar alguna pena temporal. Los pecados veniales también tienen pena temporal.

Las consecuencias temporales o el castigo del pecado son las dificultades o el desorden que el pecado introduce en nuestra vida y en nuestros deseos, que hace más difícil hacer el bien y más fácil cometer más pecados. La pena temporal puede ser satisfecha realizando obras de penitencia, oración, indulgencias, etc. Cualquier pena temporal que falta satisfacción cuando una persona muere, se quita en los sufrimientos del Purgatorio.

La indulgencia plenaria es la remisión de toda pena temporal debida al pecado, cuya culpa ya ha sido perdonada en la confesión sacramental. Los requisitos habituales para una indulgencia plenaria son:

1. tener la disposición interior de completo desapego del pecado, incluso del pecado venial;
2. recibir el sacramento de la confesión;
3. recibir la Sagrada Eucaristía;
4. y recitar oraciones por las intenciones del Santo Padre (se sugiere un Padre Nuestro y un Ave María).

Además de estos cuatro requisitos, también se necesita algún otro trabajo u oración. Muchos de estos están vinculados a días o eventos específicos (como el Año de la Misericordia), pero otros se pueden adquirir diariamente. Por ejemplo, la Iglesia ofrece una indulgencia plenaria a aquellos que

1. visitan el Santísimo Sacramento para una adoración de al menos media hora;
2. rezan devotamente el rosario mariano en una iglesia u oratorio, o en una familia, o en una asociación de fieles, y en general cuando varios de los fieles se reúnan con algún propósito honesto
3. o leen las Sagradas Escrituras como lectura espiritual durante al menos media hora.

Solo se puede ganar una indulgencia plenaria cada día y si falta alguna de las condiciones necesarias, la indulgencia es solo parcial. La Penitenciaría Apostólica señala que "[e]s conveniente, pero no necesario, que la Confesión sacramental y especialmente la Sagrada Comunión y la oración por las intenciones del Papa se realicen el mismo día en que se realiza la obra indulgente; pero es suficiente que estos ritos sagrados y oraciones se lleven a cabo dentro de varios días (unos 20) antes o después del acto de la indulgencia".

Las indulgencias se ofrecen para nuestro bienestar espiritual y para estimularnos a una mayor devoción y recepción de los sacramentos. Puede ser fácil olvidar la gran bendición que tenemos en ellos, por lo que debemos pedirle a nuestro ángel guardián que nos lo recuerde, para que podamos perder los dones que se nos ofrecen y que podamos acercarnos más a Nuestro Señor.

Que Dios los bendiga,
Padre David Angelino

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

O God, who show the light of your truth to those who go astray, so that they may return to the right path, give all who for the faith they profess are accounted Christians the grace to reject whatever is contrary to the name of Christ and to strive after all that does it honor.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." (Luke 10)
