Fr. Louis Lallemand, Chapter I.
GOD ALONE CAN MAKE US HAPPY.

There is a void in our heart which all creatures united would be unable to fill. God alone can fill it; for He is our beginning and our end. The possession of God fills up this void and makes us happy. The privation of God leaves in us this void and is the cause of our wretchedness.

Before God fills up this void, He puts us in the way of faith with this condition, that if we never cease to regard Him as our last end, if we use creatures with moderation, and refer to His service the use we make of them, at the same time contributing faithfully to the glory which it is His will to draw from all created beings, He will give Himself to us to fill up the void within us, and make us happy. But if we are wanting in fidelity, He will leave in us that void which, left unfilled, will cause our supreme misery.

Creatures desire to take the place of our last end, and we ourselves more than all, we desire to be our own last end. A creature says to us, "Come to me; I will satisfy thee." We believe it, and it deceives us. Then another and another holds the same language to us, deceives us in like manner, and will go on deceiving us all our life long. Creatures call to us on all sides, and promise to satisfy us. All their promises, however, are but lies; and yet we are ever ready to let ourselves be cheated. It is as if the bed of the sea were empty, and one were to take a handful of water to refill it. Thus, we are never satisfied; for when we attach ourselves to creatures, they estrange us from God, and cast us into an ocean of pain, trouble, and misery elements as inseparable from the creature, as joy, peace, and happiness are inseparable from God.

"We are like jaded epicures, who taste a dish, then leave it, and immediately stretch out their hand to another, to leave it also in its turn, finding nothing to their liking. We seize upon every manner of thing, without being able to satisfy ourselves with any. God alone is the sovereign good who can make us happy; and we deceive ourselves when we say, "Were I in such a place, had I such a situation, I should be satisfied. Such an one is happy; he has what he desires." Vanity! Were you Pope, you would not be content. Let us seek God; let us seek God only. He only can satisfy all our desires.

La Doctrina Espiritual
del Padre Luis Lallemand, Capítulo I SOLO DIOS PUEDE HACERNOS FELICES.

Hay un vacío en nuestro corazón que todas las criaturas unidas no podrían llenar. Sólo Dios puede llenarlo; porque Él es nuestro principio y nuestro fin. La posesión de Dios llena este vacío y nos hace felices. La privación de Dios deja en nosotros este vacío y es la causa de nuestra miseria.

Antes de que Dios llene este vacío, nos pone en el camino de la fe con esta condición, que si nunca dejamos de considerarlo a Él como nuestro último fin, si usamos las criaturas con moderación, y remitimos a su servicio el uso que hacemos de ellas. , al mismo tiempo que contribuye fielmente a la gloria que es su voluntad sacar de todos los seres creados, se entregará a nosotros para llenar el vacío que hay en nosotros y hacernos felices. Pero si estamos faltos de fidelidad, dejará en nosotros ese vacío que, dejado sin llenar, causará nuestra suprema miseria.

Las criaturas anhelan ocupar el lugar de nuestro fin último, y nosotros mismos, más que nada, deseamos ser nuestro propio fin último. Una criatura nos dice: "Venid a mí, yo os saciaré". Lo creemos, y nos engaña. Luego otro y otro nos tienen el mismo lenguaje, nos engañan de la misma manera, y seguirán engañándonos toda la vida. Las criaturas nos llaman por todas partes y prometen satisfacernos. Sin embargo, todas sus promesas no son más que mentiras; y, sin embargo, siempre estamos dispuestos a dejarnos engañar. Es como si el lecho del mar estuviera vacío y hubiera que tomar un puñado de agua para volverlo a llenar. Así, nunca estamos satisfechos; porque cuando nos apegamos a las criaturas, ellas nos alejan de Dios y nos arrojan a un océano de dolor, angustia y miseria, elementos tan inseparables de la criatura, como la alegría, la paz y la felicidad son inseparables de Dios.

"Somos como epicúreos hastiados, que prueban un plato, luego lo dejan, e inmediatamente extienden su mano a otro, para dejarlo también a su vez, sin encontrar nada de su agrado. Nos apoderamos de todo tipo de cosas, sin poder de satisfacernos con alguno. Sólo Dios es el soberano bien que puede hacernos felices; y nos engañamos cuando decimos: "Si estuviera en tal lugar, si tuviera tal situación, estaría satisfecho". Tal persona es feliz; tiene lo que quiere." ¡Vanidad! Si fueras Papa, no estarías contento. Busquemos a Dios, busquemos sólo a Dios. Sólo Él puede satisfacer todos nuestros deseos.

PARISH MEN'S SINGING NIGHT

LAST Thursday

of even-numbered months (August, October, December, etc.)

Next event: Thursday, August 25th
6:45pm in the Family Life Center

The men of the parish are invited to an evening of singing with Mr. Sellers, STCS music director, in the Family Life Center. We'll try BYOB this time around, and please do bring some and enjoy.

Last time (June 2) was such a roaring success, we wouldn't want to change our materials too much : piano, music packets (provided), good will, Mr. Sellers and beer--your beer. High school age and up; 8th grade would be okay, too. Look forward to seeing you there for more rough and ready singing. Relaxed atmosphere, no snobbery, no experience required.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

O GOD, who cause the minds of the faithful to unite in a single purpose, grant your people to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, amid the uncertainties of this world, our hearts may be fixed on that place where true gladness is found.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

“People will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God” (Luke 13:30).
