Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This past week was very busy at the parish and I would like to thank all those who helped with our various events, especially Fr. Juan for all his work to put together the procession after the Mass on Thursday in honor of Our Lady of Sorrows, as well as the men who carried Our Lady in procession.

Yesterday we were blessed to have the display of Eucharistic miracles and an all day bilingual retreat. This would never have happened without the planning and hard work of a number of people, and I would like to express my gratitude to the core planning committee and all the volunteers for your work.

September is a month with several important celebrations of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Her birthday was celebrated on September 8th, the Holy Name of Mary on September 12th, and the feast of Our Lady of Sorrows on the 15th. This last feast recalls the seven traditional “sorrows” that Our Lady underwent during the course of her earthly life. Those sorrows are: The prophecy of Simeon that Jesus would suffer, the flight into Egypt, the loss of the Child Jesus in the Temple, when Mary met Jesus on the Way of the Cross, the Crucifixion and Death of her Son, when Jesus was taken down from the Cross and placed in her arms, and finally when Jesus was laid in the Tomb.

Mary was Immaculately Conceived and lived her life without any personal sin. She loves Jesus with a love greater than that of any of the other saints or angels and so suffered seeing her Son suffer with an intensity that we cannot imagine. These Sorrows were a kind of spiritual martyrdom for Our Lady and, though she herself did not die for the faith, is rightly venerated as “Queen of Martyrs”.

St. Thomas teaches that at the Annunciation Mary gave her consent to the Archangel Gabriel on behalf of all human nature (cf. ST III 30 a1). Mary said yes to receive Jesus and to allow Him to be born on our behalf. Mary said yes to the angel at the Annunciation and that yes continued throughout her whole life, culminating to the last of her Sorrows, when she beheld her Son giving His life on the Cross.

An essential element of our life as Christians is imitating Mary’s “yes” and the faith and trust that she had even at the Cross. Our own yes must be a yes to God’s will for our life not only in the joys, but also in the sorrows and crosses that we must bear.

May God bless you,
Fr. David Angelino

MUSIC PROGRAM

We would like to invite our parishioners who play an instrument or sing to join our music team for our Saturday 5pm mass. We would love to have you as part of our music program, and continue our rich musical traditions at St Theresa's. We meet 45 minutes before the mass to practice. Singers and players of all levels are invited. For more details, please contact Gustavo Andres, our Assistant Music Director at Gusta-vo@sugarlandcatholic.com.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

La semana pasada hubo mucha actividad en la parroquia, y me gustaría agradecer a todos los que ayudaron con nuestros diversos eventos, especialmente al Padre Juan por todo su trabajo para armar la procesión después de la Misa del jueves en honor a Nuestra Señora de los Dolores, así como a los hombres que llevaron a Nuestra Señora en procesión.

Ayer tuvimos la bendición de tener la exhibición de los milagros eucarísticos y un retiro bilingüe de todo el día. Esto nunca hubiera sucedido sin la planificación y el arduo trabajo de varias personas, y me gustaría expresar mi gratitud al comité central de planificación y a todos los voluntarios por su trabajo.

Septiembre es un mes con varias celebraciones importantes de la Santísima Virgen María. Su cumpleaños se celebró el 8 de septiembre, el Santo Nombre de María el 12 de septiembre y la fiesta de Nuestra Señora de los Dolores el 15. Esta última fiesta recuerda los siete “dolores” tradicionales que sufrió Nuestra Señora a lo largo de su vida terrenal. Esos dolores son: La profecía de Simeón que Jesús sufriría, la huida a Egipto, la pérdida del Niño Jesús en el Templo, cuando María se encontró con Jesús en el Vía Crucis, la Crucifixión y Muerte de su Hijo, cuando Jesús fue bajado de la Cruz y colocado en sus brazos, y finalmente cuando Jesús fue puesto en la tumba.

María fue Inmaculadamente Concebida y vivió su vida sin ningún pecado personal. Ella ama a Jesús con un amor más grande que el de cualquiera de los otros santos o ángeles y por eso sufrió viendo sufrir a su Hijo con una intensidad que no podemos imaginar. Estos Dolores fueron una especie de martirio espiritual para Nuestra Señora y, aunque Ella misma no murió por la fe, es justamente venerada como “Reina de los Mártires”.

Santo Tomás enseña que en la Anunciación María dio su consentimiento al arcángel Gabriel en nombre de toda la naturaleza humana (cf. ST III 30 a1). María dijo sí para recibir a Jesús y permitirle nacer en nuestro lugar. María dijo sí al ángel en la Anunciación y ese sí continuó durante toda su vida, culminando hasta el último de sus Dolores, cuando vio a su Hijo dando la vida en la Cruz.

Un elemento esencial de nuestra vida como cristianos es imitar el “sí” de María y la fe y la confianza que ella tuvo incluso en la Cruz. Nuestro propio sí debe ser un sí a la voluntad de Dios para nuestra vida no sólo en las alegrías, sino también en las penas y cruces que debemos llevar.

Que Dios los bendiga,

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. This nationwide event is coordinated and sponsored by the US Council of Serra International. The men who answer the call to priesthood are special indeed, and they are working harder than ever before.

Priesthood Sunday is celebrated on the last Sunday in September and this year it is on September 25th. Priesthood Sunday, specifically honors priests, without whom the Mass could not be offered and Sacraments could not be celebrated. It is a special day to express our gratitude and appreciation and to thank and honor priests in unique ways. (USA Council of Serra International.)

Please show our appreciation to our wonderful priests by signing a thank you or spiritual bouquet card which can be found in baskets at the Northex on September 18th and September 25th. You or your family can make your own cards and drop them off at the Northex in labeled baskets or at the parish office during the week.

Also, we have a vocations ministry here at St. Theresa's called the St. Alphonsus Liguori (Patron saint of vocations to the priesthood and religious life) Apostolate. Come visit our table for Hospitality Sunday on September 25th after the 8:00 am and 10:00 am Masses in which you can sign a card for our priests and find out about this ministry.

THANKSGIVING AFTER MASS

I thank you, holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God, who deigned to feast me, sinful and unworthy servant, with the precious body and blood of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, not for any merit of mine, but only because of your merciful goodness. And I pray that this Holy Communion, far from condemning me to punishment, may bring about my pardon and salvation, encompassing me with the armor of faith and the shield of a good will. By it let my vices be done away, all lustful desires extinguished. May it advance me in charity, patience, humility, obedience, and every other virtue. Let it be strong defense against the wiles of all my enemies, visible and invisible, allaying for me every disturbance of flesh and spirit, binding me firmly to you, the one true God, and bringing my last hour to a happy close. I pray, too, that it may be your pleasure to call my sinful self one day to that banquet, wonderful past all telling, where you, with your Son and the Holy Spirit, feast your saints with the vision of yourself, who are true light, the fulfillment of all desires, the joy that knows no ending, gladness unalloyed, and perfect bliss: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Thomas Aquinas

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

O GOD, who founded all the commands of your sacred Law upon love of you and of our neighbor, grant that, by keeping your precepts, we may merit to attain eternal life.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

"It is my wish, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger or argument" (I Timothy 2:8).
