*Divine Mercy.*1930's, Archives of the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy.St. John Paul II Regina Caeli Address, Divine Mercy Sunday 1994

"Peace be with you!" This is the greeting of the risen Christ, which has been echoed several times in our biblical readings during this Octave of Easter and in particular, in the Gospel of today's liturgy. On Jesus' lips this greeting goes far beyond the perspective of and desire for external peace, although this is so necessary. The peace brought by Jesus is the fullness of the Easter gift.

Christ himself is our peace (Eph 2:14). Appearing to the Apostles after the resurrection, He, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world (Jn 1:29), inaugurates the time of great mercy offered to mankind through the gift of the Spirit and the sacraments of the Church: "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them" (Jn 20:23).

The peace brought by the Risen One is consequently the triumph of Divine Mercy. What is mercy if not the boundless love of God, who, confronted with human sin, restrains the sentiment of severe justice and, allowing himself to be moved by the wretchedness of his creatures, spurs himself to the total gift of self, in the Son's cross? "O happy fault ... which gained for us so great a Redeemer!" (Easter Proclamation)

To understand the depth of this mystery, we should take Jesus' disconcerting revelation seriously: "... there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance" (Lk 15:7). God is truly the Shepherd who leaves ninety-nine sheep to go in search of the one that has strayed (Lk 15:4-6); he is the Father who is always ready to welcome a lost son (Lk 15:11-31). Who can say he is free from sin and does not need God's mercy?

As people of this restless time of ours, wavering between the emptiness of self-exaltation and the humiliation of despair, we have a greater need than ever for a regenerating experience of mercy. We should learn to say repeatedly to God with the faith and simplicity of children: "Great is our sin, but even greater is your love!" (Vespers hymn during the season of Lent)

Opening ourselves to mercy, we must not be content with mediocrity and sin, but on the contrary, we must be revived by resolutions to lead a new life.

O Mary, Mother of mercy! You know the heart of your divine Son better than anyone. Instill in us the filial trust in Jesus practiced by the saints, the trust that animated Blessed Faustina Kowalska, the great apostle of Divine Mercy in our time.

Look lovingly upon our misery: O Mother, draw us away from the contrary temptations of self-sufficiency and despair, and obtain for us an abundance of saving mercy.

Feast of St. Mark

Tuesday, April 25, at 6:00pm, the children of St. Theresa Catholic School will offer beautiful music for a special Mass celebrating the Feast of St. Mark the Evangelist. The parish is welcome to worship with our school community and to appreciate and encourage our students' best efforts. Please consider attending with friends and family.

The Knights of Council 4204 would like to thank all those that came out to support our Lenten Fish Fries. The money raised at these dinners helps to fund all of our charitable work throughout the entire year.

We would also like to thank all those that came out to volunteer at our events, especially our confirmation and honor roll youth who did an amazing job. Special thanks to our CDA sisters who not only helped on the serving line but furnished all those wonderful desserts. See for a BBQ Sunday this summer and then for a couple Friday fish dinners this fall.

Discurso de San Juan Pablo II Regina Caeli, Domingo de la Divina Misericordia 1994

1. «¡Paz a vosotros!». Éste es el saludo del Resucitado, que más veces ha resonado en las lecturas bíblicas de esta octava de Pascua, en especial en el evangelio de la liturgia de hoy. Este saludo en labios de Jesús va mucho más allá de la perspectiva y el deseo de una paz exterior, aunque sea muy necesaria. La paz que da Jesús es la plenitud del don pascual.

Cristo mismo es nuestra paz (cf. Ef 2, 14). Él, el cordero de Dios que quita el pecado del mundo (cf. Jn 1, 29), al aparecerse a los Apóstoles después de la resurrección, inaugura el tiempo del gran perdón, ofrecido a los hombres a través del don del Espíritu y los sacramentos de la Iglesia: «A quienes perdonéis los pecados, les quedarán perdonados» (Jn 20, 23).

2. La paz que da el Resucitado es también el triunfo de la misericordia divina. En efecto, ¿qué es la misericordia sino el amor sin límites de Dios, que, ante el pecado del hombre, frenando el sentimiento de una severa justicia, casi se deja enternecer por la miseria de la criatura, y va hasta el don total de sí, en la cruz del Hijo? «¡Feliz la culpa que mereció tal Redentor!» (Pregón pascual).

Para captar la profundidad de este misterio, debemos tomar muy en serio la desconcertante revelación de Jesús: «Habrà más alegría en el cielo por un solo pecador que se convierta que por noventa y nueve justos que no tengan necesidad de conversión» (Lc 15, 7). Dios es verdaderamente el pastor que deja las noventa y nueve ovejas para ir en busca de la perdida (cf. Lc 15, 4-6); es el padre que espera siempre al hijo pródigo (cf. Lc 15, 11-31). ¿Quién puede decir que está sin pecado y que no necesita la misericordia de Dios?

Nosotros, hombres de este tiempo tan inquieto, oscilante entre el vacío de la autoexaltación y el abatimiento de la desesperación, necesitamos más que nunca una experiencia regeneradora de misericordia. Debemos aprender a repetir a Dios, con confianza y sencillez de hijos: «Grande es nuestro pecado, pero más grande es tu amor» (Himno de Vísperas del tiempo de Cuaresma).

Al abrírnos a la misericordia, no pretendemos ciertamente aprovecharnos de ella para acomodarnos en la mediocridad y en el pecado; al contrario, nos sentimos impulsados a propósitos de vida nueva.

3. ¡Oh, María, ¡Madre de misericordia! Tú conoces como nadie el corazón de tu divino Hijo. Inspíranos con respecto a Jesús la confianza filial que vivieron los santos, la confianza que animó a la beata Faustina Kowalska, gran apóstol de la misericordia divina en nuestro tiempo.

Mira con amor nuestra miseria; arráncanos, oh, Madre, de las contrastantes tentaciones de la autosuficiencia y del abatimiento, y alcánzanos la abundancia de la misericordia que nos salva.

To the gentlemen of St. Theresa Parish:

The sun has full risen and shows a joyful Eastertide.

May 4, 6:45-8:15pm, we will sing new songs to God on high and make fraternal merriment in the Parish Choir Room, just off the circle drive on 7th Street. We will arrange to have a keg of beer.

Per usual, no particular talent or musical intuition is required, and fussiness is furthermore undesired at this fest. No preparation is required--only recommend our festivities to some other fellow and help to fill the choir room with manly shouts and good humor. Music sheets will be provided.

Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska August 25, 1905 – October 5, 1938

Saint Faustina's name is forever linked to the annual feast of the Divine Mercy, the Divine Mercy chaplet, and the Divine Mercy prayer recited each day at 3 p.m. by many people.

Born in what is now west-central Poland, Helena Kowalska was the third of 10 children. She worked as a housekeeper in three cities before joining the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in 1925. She worked as a cook, gardener, and porter in three of their houses. In addition to carrying out her work faithfully, generously serving the needs of the sisters and the local people, Sister Faustina also had a deep interior life. This included receiving revelations from the Lord Jesus, messages that she recorded in her diary at the request of Christ and of her confessors.

At a time when some Catholics had an image of God as such a strict judge that they might be tempted to despair about the possibility of being forgiven, Jesus chose to emphasize his mercy and forgiveness for sins acknowledged and confessed. "I do not want to punish aching mankind," he once told Saint Faustina, "But I desire to heal it, pressing it to my merciful heart." The two rays emanating from Christ's heart, she said, represent the blood and water poured out after Jesus' death.

Because Sister Maria Faustina knew that the revelations, she had already received did not constitute holiness itself, she wrote in her diary: "Neither graces, nor revelations, nor raptures, nor gifts granted to a soul make it perfect, but rather the intimate union of the soul with God. These gifts are merely ornaments of the soul but constitute neither its essence nor its perfection. My sanctity and perfection consist in the close union of my will with the will of God."

Sister Maria Faustina died of tuberculosis in Krakow, Poland, on October 5, 1938. Pope John Paul II beatified her in 1993 and canonized her seven years later.

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY)

God of everlasting mercy, who in the very recurrence of the paschal feast kindle the faith of the people you have made your own, increase, we pray, the grace you have bestowed, that all may grasp and rightly understand in what font they have been washed, by whose Spirit they have been reborn, by whose Blood they have been redeemed.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

“They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers” (Acts 2:42).
