Chapter XXXVI. Of a Well-Balanced, Reasonable Mind.

REASON is the special characteristic of man, and yet it is a rare thing to find really reasonable men, all the more that self-love hinders reason, and beguiles us insensibly into all manner of trifling, but yet dangerous acts of injustice and untruth, which, like the little foxes in the Canticles (Cant. 2:15), spoil our vines, while, just because they are trifling, people pay no attention to them, and because they are numerous, they do infinite harm. Let me give some instances of what I mean.

We find fault with our neighbor very readily for a small matter, while we pass over great things in ourselves. We strive to sell dear and buy cheap. We are eager to deal with strict justice to others, but to obtain indulgence for ourselves. We expect a good construction to be put on all we say, but we are sensitive and critical as to our neighbor's words. We expect him to let us have whatever we want for money, when it would be more reasonable to let him keep that which is his, if he desires to do so, and leave us to keep our gold. We are vexed with him because he will not accommodate us, while perhaps he has better reason to be vexed with us for wanting to disturb him. If we have a liking for any one thing, we despise all else, and reject whatever does not precisely suit our taste. If some inferior is unacceptable to us, or we have once caught him in error, he is sure to be wrong in our eyes whatever he may do, and we are forever thwarting, or looking coldly on him, while, on the other hand, someone who happens to please us is sure to be right.

Sometimes even parents show unfair preference for a child endowed with personal gifts over one afflicted with some physical imperfection. We put the rich before the poor, although they may have less claim, and be less worthy; we even give preference to well-dressed people. We are strict in exacting our own rights but expect others to be yielding as to theirs; —we complain freely of our neighbors, but we do not like them to make any complaints of us. Whatever we do for them appears very great in our sight, but what they do for us counts as nothing. In a word, we are like the Paphlagonia partridge, which has two hearts; for we have a very tender, pitiful, easy heart towards ourselves, and one which is hard, harsh, and strict towards our neighbor. We have two scales, one wherein to measure our own goods to the best advantage, and the other to weigh our neighbors to the worst. Holy Scripture tells us that lying lips are an abomination unto the Lord (Prov 12:22), and the double heart, with one measure whereby to receive, and another to give, is also abominable in His Sight.

Be just and fair in all you do. Always put yourself in your neighbor's place, and put him into yours, and then you will judge fairly. Sell as you would buy, and buy as you would sell, and you're buying and selling will alike be honest. These little dishonesties seem unimportant, because we are not obliged to make restitution, and we have, after all, only taken that which we might demand according to the strict letter of the law; but nevertheless, they are sins against right and charity, and are mere trickery, greatly needing correction—nor does anyone ever lose by being generous, noble-hearted, and courteous. Be sure then often to examine your dealings with your neighbor, whether your heart is right towards him, as you would have his towards you, were things reversed—this is the true test of reason. When Trajan was blamed by his confidential friends for making the Imperial presence too accessible, he replied, “Does it not behoove me to strive to be such an emperor towards my subjects as I should wish to meet with were I a subject?”

San Francisco de Sales, Introducción a la vida devota Capítulo XXXVI. De una Mente Bien Equilibrada y Razonable.

La RAZÓN es la característica especial del hombre y, sin embargo, es raro encontrar hombres realmente razonables, tanto más que el amor propio obstaculiza la razón y nos seduce insensiblemente a toda clase de actos insignificantes, pero peligrosos, de injusticia y falsedad que, como las zorras de los Cánticos (Cant. 2, 15), echan a perder nuestras viñas, mientras que, por ser insignificantes, la gente no les hace caso, y por ser numerosas, hacen un daño infinito. Permítanme dar algunos ejemplos de lo que quiero decir.

Muy pronto criticamos a nuestro prójimo por las cosas pequeñas, mientras que en nosotros mismos pasamos por alto las grandes cosas. Nos esforzamos por vender caro y comprar barato. Estamos deseosos de tratar con estricta justicia a los demás, pero de obtener indulgencia para nosotros mismos. Esperamos que se dé una buena interpretación a todo lo que decimos, pero somos sensibles y críticos con las palabras de nuestro prójimo. Esperamos que nos deje tener lo que queramos por dinero, cuando sería más razonable dejar que se quede con lo que es suyo, si así lo desea, y dejar que nos quedemos con nuestro oro. Estamos enfadados con él porque no nos quiere acomodar, mientras que tal vez tenga mejores razones para enfadarse con nosotros por querer molestarlo. Si nos gusta algo, despreciamos todo lo demás y rechazamos todo lo que no se ajusta precisamente a nuestro gusto. Si algún inferior es inaceptable para nosotros, o lo hemos sorprendido una vez por error, es seguro que estará equivocado a nuestros ojos haga lo que haga, y siempre lo frustraremos o lo miraremos con frialdad, mientras que, por otro lado, alguien que nos complace seguramente tendrá razón.

A veces, incluso los padres muestran una preferencia injusta por un hijo dotado de dotes personales sobre uno aquejado de alguna imperfección física. Anteponemos a los ricos a los pobres, aunque tengan menos derecho y sean menos dignos; incluso damos preferencia a las personas bien vestidas. Somos estrictos en exigir nuestros propios derechos, pero esperamos que los demás cedan en cuanto a los suyos; —Nos quejamos libremente de nuestros vecinos, pero no nos gusta que se quejen de nosotros. Todo lo que hacemos por ellos parece muy grande a nuestros ojos, pero lo que ellos hacen por nosotros no cuenta como nada. En una palabra, somos como la perdiz de Paflagonia, que tiene dos corazones; porque tenemos un corazón muy tierno, compasivo y fácil con nosotros mismos, y duro, áspero y severo con el prójimo. Tenemos dos balanzas, una en la que medir nuestros propios bienes en la mejor ventaja, y la otra para pesar a nuestros vecinos en la peor. La Sagrada Escritura nos dice que los labios mentirosos son una abominación para el Señor (Prov 12:22), y el corazón doble, con una medida para recibir y otra para dar, también es abominable a Su Vista.

Sea justo y equitativo en todo lo que haga. Ponte siempre en el lugar de tu prójimo, y ponlo en el tuyo, y entonces juzgarás con justicia. Vende como comprarías, y compra como venderías, y lo que estás comprando y vendiendo será igual de honesto. Estas pequeñas deshonestidades parecen sin importancia, porque no estamos obligados a hacer restitución, y después de todo, solo hemos tomado lo que podríamos exigir de acuerdo con la letra estricta de la ley; pero, sin embargo, son pecados contra el derecho y la caridad, y son meras artimañas, muy necesitadas de corrección, y nadie pierde nunca por ser generoso, noble de corazón y cortés. Asegúrense entonces de examinar a menudo sus tratos con su prójimo, si su corazón es recto hacia él, como lo sería hacia ustedes si las cosas fueran al revés; esta es la verdadera prueba de la razón. Cuando sus amigos confidenciales culparon a Trajano por hacer que la presencia imperial fuera demasiado accesible, respondió: "¿No me corresponde esforzarme por ser un emperador para mis súbditos como me gustaría encontrarme si fuera un súbdito?"

Easter is a great time to explore the Catholic faith!

Curious about the Catholic faith and the Rosary? Do we 'worship' Mary and the Pope? Attending Mass with a Catholic spouse, but are not Catholic yourself? In the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults we go in depth to answer some of these questions and much more. Come and see!

If you are seventeen years of age or older and are: unbaptized, baptized in another faith community, or a baptized Catholic who was not raised in the Catholic Church, then the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RICA) is for you!

You may begin the process at any time during the year.

We are meeting virtually on Zoom. Contact Kelsey Pena at (281) 494-1156 ext. 222 or by e-mail: kelsey.pena@sugarlandcatholic.com

If you, your child or someone you know is between the ages of seven and sixteen, not baptized or baptized in another faith community, we have an RICA process suited to your age group. Please contact Paul Stoessel at (paul@sugarlandcatholic.com) prior to attending your first session.

What is Mystagogy?

Our newly initiated "savor the mysteries" during these fifty days of Easter. This is a time to deepen their grasp of the paschal mystery through sharing in the Eucharist, meditating on the Easter scriptures and reflecting on the various parts of the Mass of the Faithful. This is a time for the community to connect more closely with our new Catholics. Our Neophytes wear white baptismal garments during the Easter season.

WORLD DAY OF
PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS
APRIL 30, 2023

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2).

As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life.

2023 marks the 60th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The St. Alphonsus Liguori Apostolate will be handing out after masses today prayer cards which we ask parishioners to take and pray with your family for vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

Please tell our priests words of appreciation for all they do for us.

7:00pm- Talk

Location: Main Church

705 St. Theresa Blvd
Sugar Land, TX

To the gentlemen of St. Theresa Parish:

The sun has full risen and shows a joyful Eastertide. May 4, 6:45-8:15pm, we will sing new songs to God on high and make fraternal merriment in the Parish Choir Room, just off the circle drive on 7th Street. We will arrange to have a keg of beer.

Per usual, no particular talent or musical intuition is required, and fussiness is furthermore undesired at this fest. No preparation is required--only recommend our festivities to some other fellow and help to fill the choir room with manly shouts and good humor. Music sheets will be provided.

Our St Theresa Catholic School students began a March Friday morning happily arriving with canned goods donations to the SVdP pantry. The children were checking out the pantry shelves and deciding where their donation would go, and meeting the volunteers. In return they received many thankyou's for providing donations for those who come to our pantry for food on Mondays and Fridays.

What Food Do We Give To Those Who Need Help?

We stock around 48 different nonperishable items that have been reviewed by a professional nutritionist, they include: cans of soups, meats, beans, vegetables, fruits, 1lb.dry beans, 1lb.rice, 2lb.flour, 2lb.sugar, vegetable oil, peanut butter, jelly, various pastas, breakfast cereals as well as personal care items like toothpaste, soap, diapers and baby wipes.

Why Small Sizes of Sugar, Rice, Beans and Flour?

As needy families usually pick up groceries every month, giving out 5 or 10 lb. sizes of sugar, rice, beans and flour would be too much to be consumed in a month. Also, because of our limited facility, we are unable to obtain a city permit that would allow us to open and repack food into smaller packages of 1 or 2lbs size.

Una mañana de viernes este Marzo, los estudiantes de la escuela Católica St Theresa llegaron con donaciones de artículos enlatados para la despensa de San Vincent de Paul. Los estudiantes mostraron interés en ver los estantes de la despensa, decidieron dónde poner sus donaciones, y conocieron y hablaron con los voluntarios. Ellos trajeron mucha energía y sonrisas a la despensa. De vuelta ellos recibieron muchas expresiones de aprecio por proveer donaciones tan valiosas para los que vienen a nuestra despensa cada Lunes y Viernes.

Do 'You' Need Emergency Help?

If you need help and have no one to turn to, please contact us by email or leave a voice. Include your name, address, telephone number and a short summary of your situation and needs. Please speak slowly and distinctly and repeat your details.

Necesita Ayuda de Emergencia?

Nuestro ministerio a SVdP está aquí para ayudar los miembros de la parroquia en tiempos de necesidad. Si necesita ayuda i no tienes a quien acudir, por favor contáctanos por email o déjanos un mensaje. Incluya su nombre, dirección, numero de teléfono, y un sumario breve de su situación y necesidades, y alguien los va a contactar. Si Ud. está llamando, por favor hable lento y repita los detalles.

How You Can Donate Directly to Our SVdP Ministry

Donation checks to 'St. Vincent de Paul' or envelopes containing money and labeled 'St. Vincent de Paul' can be dropped into any collection basket at any Mass to be passed on to our SVdP ministry. You may also drop off funding donations at the Food Pantry Mondays and Fridays between 10:00am and 1:00pm. Corporate Matching Gift programs can be generous options also.

Donations of Food & Personal Care Items Are Welcome!

The SVdP ministry can always use your help with donations of non-perishable foods still within their expiration dates. Only clothing and shoes should be placed in the large blue SVdP donation boxes located in the parking lot area between the Family Life Center and the Emmaus Chapel.
