*Adoration of the Magi.*1633 - 1634, oil on canvas,
Kelvingrove Art Gallery,
Glasgow, Scotland.*From the Pastor's DeskHomily of Saint John Chrysostom for Epiphany

When Jesus therefore was born in Bethlehem of Juda, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying: Where is that is born king of the Jews. For we have seen his star in the east and are come to adore him.

Isaias had foretold that this would come to pass, saying: The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Madian and Apha: all they from Saba shall come, bringing gold and frankincense: and showing forth praise to the Lord.[Isa. 60: 6] This is He, Christ the Lord, Whom the Magi, having seen the sign of the star, announce as the King of the Jews.

Things unheard of, and exceeding the measure of human astonishment, all took place together at the Birth of Our Lord. An angel appears and speaks to Zachary, promising that to Elizabeth, his wife, a son will be born, and he, not believing the angel, is stricken dumb: she that was sterile conceives: in the womb of a Virgin a Child takes life. John, inspired in his mother's womb, leaps for joy: Christ the Lord New-Born is announced by an angel. He is proclaimed by the shepherds as the salvation of the world. Angels exult, the shepherds rejoice. Upon this glorious nativity joy and gladness rise up both in heaven and on earth.

The new sign of a star in the heavens is pointed out to the Magi; through this sign it is made known to them that the Lord of the heavens is born King of the Jews; He of Whom it was written: A star shall rise out of Jacob and a sceptre shall spring up from Israel[Numbers 24: 17], so that from the symbol of a star the union of man with the Son of God, of human nature with the divine, might become known.

Thus it was the Lord spoke of Himself in the Apocalypse: I am the root and stock of David, the bright and morning star[Apoc. 22: 16] for in the rising of His own Nativity, the night of ignorance being scattered, He shines forth, the bright and morning star, unto the salvation of the world; the splendour of Whose light reaching also to the hearts of the Magi, filled them with spiritual light, so that by the sign of the new-risen star they know the Creator of heaven as the King of the Jews.

The Magi, teachers of a false faith, could never have come to know Christ Our Lord, had they not been illumined by the grace of this divine condescension. Indeed the grace of God overflowed at the Birth of Christ, so that each single soul might be enlightened by His Truth. The Magi are enlightened so that the goodness of God may be made manifest: so that no one need despair, doubting that salvation through faith will be given to him, seeing He bestowed it on the Magi. The Magi therefore were the first from the Gentiles chosen for salvation, so that through them a door might be opened to all the Gentiles.

Homilía de San Juan Crisóstomo para la Epifanía

Así pues, cuando nació Jesús en Belén de Judá, vinieron unos magos de Oriente a Jerusalén, diciendo: ¿Dónde está el que ha nacido rey de los judíos? Porque hemos visto su estrella en el oriente y venimos a adorarlo.

Isaías había predicho que esto sucedería, diciendo: Multitud de camellos te cubrirán, los dromedarios de Madián y de Afá; vendrán todos los de Saba, trayendo oro e incienso, y manifestando alabanzas al Señor. [Isa. 60: 6] Este es Él, Cristo el Señor, a quien los Magos, habiendo visto la señal de la estrella, anuncian como Rey de los judíos.

Cosas inauditas, y que sobrepasan la medida del asombro humano, sucedieron todas juntas en el Nacimiento de Nuestro Señor. Un ángel se aparece y habla a Zacarías, prometiéndole que, a Isabel, su mujer, le nacerá un hijo, y él, no creyendo al ángel, enmudece: la que era estéril concibe: en el seno de una Virgen toma vida un Niño. Juan, inspirado en el seno de su madre, salta de alegría: Cristo, el Señor recién nacido, es anunciado por un ángel. Los pastores lo anuncian como la salvación del mundo. Los ángeles exultan, los pastores se alegran. Ante esta gloriosa Natividad, el gozo y la alegría se elevan tanto en el cielo como en la tierra.

Se señala a los Magos la nueva señal de una estrella en los cielos; por medio de esta señal se les hace saber que el Señor de los cielos ha nacido Rey de los judíos; Aquel de Quien estaba escrito: Una estrella saldrá de Jacob y un cetro brotará de Israel [Números 24: 17], para que a partir del símbolo de una estrella se diera a conocer la unión del hombre con el Hijo de Dios, de la naturaleza humana con la divina.

Así habló el Señor de Sí mismo en el Apocalipsis: Yo soy la raíz y el tronco de David, la estrella resplandeciente y matutina [Apoc. 22: 16], pues en la aurora de su propia Natividad, disipada la noche de la ignorancia, resplandece Él, la estrella resplandeciente y matutina, para la salvación del mundo; el esplendor de cuya luz, alcanzando también los corazones de los Magos, los llenó de luz espiritual, de modo que por el signo de la estrella recién nacida conocieron al Creador del cielo como Rey de los Judíos.

Los Magos, maestros de una fe falsa, nunca habrían podido llegar a conocer a Cristo Nuestro Señor, si no hubieran sido iluminados por la gracia de esta divina condescendencia. En efecto, la gracia de Dios se desbordó en el Nacimiento de Cristo, para que cada alma fuese iluminada por su Verdad. Los Magos son iluminados para que se manifieste la bondad de Dios: para que nadie desespere, dudando de que se le conceda la salvación por la fe, ya que Él la concedió a los Magos. Los Magos fueron, pues, los primeros de entre los Gentiles elegidos para la salvación, a fin de que por medio de ellos se abriera una puerta a todos los Gentiles.

“Eucharistic Love” by a Fellow Lay Person

As part of a new intermittent bulletin series, parishioners share how their realization of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist changed their lives.

Here is a short reflection of a pivotal moment in my life in which I was able to finally recognize Christ truly present in the Eucharist:

A particular memory I have of finally coming to recognize the true presence of Jesus in the Eucharist was in the early stages of my reversion back to the Faith, which was due in large part to my younger brother.

One day, I was incredibly stressed out over an incredibly trivial matter. I was getting ready to fly to Colorado to see some friends, and needed to buy a winter coat. I drove down the road to the nearby department store and began looking. However, for some reason, I could not make up my mind which one to buy. I was quite vain, and thus could not decide which one would look best, for the best price. After about 45 minutes, I left frustrated and anxious, without having purchased a coat.

Later in the day, after explaining this to my brother, he agreed to go back with me to the department store. He insisted that we take his car so that he could drive. The route to the department store went past our home parish. Without telling me, my brother pulled into the parking lot. I was taken off guard, and became quite angry, asking him where we were going. He replied that we were going to the adoration chapel to spend 15 minutes in prayer. I was furious, as this was the last thing I wanted to do. I remember vividly being so upset with him. We parked and walked into the adoration chapel; one I had not been in in well over a decade. I remember walking into the peaceful presence of Our Lord and proceeding to kneel in the middle pew. All that anger immediately washed away as I stared into the monstrance. The first thought that came to my mind was, “It is truly You, O Lord. You have been here this entire time. It really is You.” At that moment, immense peace washed over me. It was a feeling I had not felt in so many years. Tears came to my eyes, and in that moment I experienced such joy as I had never experienced before. This was one of the first moments in my reversion that sparked a gradual turning back to God. Afterward, when walking out of the chapel, I remember thanking my brother, and telling him how much peace I had felt. He relished the “I told you so” moment. We proceeded to the department store and were in and out in ten minutes with a coat in hand.

-A Lay Person in the Pew

PRAYER BEFORE MASS

Almighty and ever-living God, I approach the sacrament of Your only-begotten Son Our Lord Jesus Christ. I come sick to the doctor of life, unclear to the fountain of mercy, blind to the radiance of eternal light, and poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. Lord, in your great generosity, heal my sickness, wash away my defilement, enlighten my blindness, enrich my poverty, and clothe my nakedness. May I receive the bread of angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords, with humble reverence, with the purity and faith, the repentance and love, and the determined purpose that will help to bring me to salvation. May I receive the sacrament of the Lord's Body and Blood, and its reality and power. Kind God, may I receive the Body of Your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, born from the womb of the Virgin Mary, and so be received into His mystical body and numbered among His members. Loving Father, as on my earthly pilgrimage I now receive Your beloved Son under the veil of a sacrament, may I one day see him face to face in glory, who lives and reigns with You for ever. Amen.

Saint Thomas Aquinas

THANKSGIVING AFTER MASS

I thank you, holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God, who deigned to feast me, sinful and unworthy servant, with the precious body and blood of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, not for any merit of mine, but only because of your merciful goodness. And I pray that this Holy Communion, far from condemning me to punishment, may bring about my pardon and salvation, encompassing me with the armor of faith and the shield of a good will. By it let my vices be done away, all lustful desires extinguished. May it advance me in charity, patience, humility, obedience, and every other virtue. Let it be strong defense against the wiles of all my enemies, visible and invisible, allaying for me every disturbance of flesh and spirit, binding me firmly to you, the one true God, and bringing my last hour to a happy close. I pray, too, that it may be your pleasure to call my sinful self one day to that banquet, wonderful past all telling, where you, with your Son and the Holy Spirit, feast your saints with the vision of yourself, who are true light, the fulfillment of all desires, the joy that knows no ending, gladness unalloyed, and perfect bliss: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Catholic Date Night

Friday, January 12

7:00 p.m.

Join us for Date Night the 2nd Friday of this month at 7:00 PM in the Community Center. If you have been looking for a way to get out for a nice evening and share your faith with that special person in your life, then this is the event you have been looking for! This is also an evening to spend with old friends and to make new ones.

If you are new to the parish, Date Night is a great venue for connecting with your fellow parishioners. We will have an excellent dinner, drinks, fellowship, and an opportunity to learn and discuss the reasons we are Catholic. The cost is $15 per person (pay at the door). Any and all adults are welcome. Dates are not necessary; this is just an opportunity to have a good meal and a good time.

Please bring canned goods for our St. Vincent de Paul food pantry.

Free Child Care is Available IF you RSVP by Wednesday, January 10th.

Is Date Night for couples or for singles? Both! Date Night is for adults. We just call it Date Night, because it is a chance for people to get out of the house and have a good time.

Is Date Night only for Catholics? No. We are going to be exploring the beauty and richness of the Catholic faith, but this is open to anybody who is open to it.

Is Date Night only for St. Theresa Parishioners?

No. Feel free to bring friends from other parishes... provided you RSVP!

Do I need to have a date? No. Many people come by themselves,

Why must I RSVP?

Dinner is prepared from scratch by volunteers, and we want to provide the best experience possible.

Be kind... RSVP!

SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

O God, who on this day revealed your Only Begotten Son to the nations by the guidance of a star, grant in your mercy that we, who know you already by faith, may be brought to behold the beauty of your sublime glory.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Amen.
