Imitation of the Sacred Heart of Jesus
by Fr. Peter Arnoudt
Book III CHAPTER 1

1. The voice of Jesus. — Be thou holy, My Child, because I am holy. Whosoever longs to be a perfect Disciple of My Heart, strives to become holy, as I also am holy, by an interior, true and solid holiness.

Holiness is a great good, it contains all blessings desirable upon earth, and begets everlasting bliss in heaven.

Holiness is the completion of virtue, the guardian of sanctifying grace, the preserver of inward peace, the nurse of the heart's joy, and of ever-enduring happiness.

Holiness is true wisdom, real glory, inexhaustible wealth.

To be the least of the Saints is something incomparably greater than to be the greatest of the whole world.

What is there in this world that can justly be compared with holiness? not science, not dignity, not renown, not the possession of all riches. For all these things are only of earth, they last but for a moment; like vapors in the air, they glisten and soon disappear. But holiness is heaven-born and permanent, it glitters before the inhabitants of heaven like the sun; yea, when the sun fades away, it shall continue to shine for evermore.

Let not, then, the wise man glory in his wisdom, let not the strong man glory in his strength, let not the rich man glory in his wealth: but he that glories, let him glory in this, that he knows and loves Me; that, through love, he follows Me, and thus sanctifies himself.

My Child, if thou understandest not these things at present, thou shalt understand them later, even in spite of thyself, — when, at the near approach of death, thou shalt entertain more correct sentiments.

Tell Me, if this day thou hadst to die, which wouldst thou rather desire, to be a Saint, or to have been a king or a Pope? "Would to God," — exclaimed, when dying, one who had been a ruler, and had some experience in the matter, — "would to God that I had never been a ruler, but, in its stead, the least of God's holy servants"! "Would," sighed another, "that I had not worn the tiara, but had passed my life in the kitchen of some house consecrated to God"!

Thou canst not value holiness too highly, since I Myself have held it in such esteem that, to make it possible and easy, I poured out the treasures of My Heart, multiplied the means at My greatest costs, and ordered all things for the sanctification of the Elect.

Do thou, therefore, aspire to so great a good, My Child: and strive, magnanimously, to become a Saint.

Imitación del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús por el Padre Peter Arnoudt Libro III CAPÍTULO 1

1. La voz de Jesús. - Sé santo, Hijo mío, porque Yo soy santo. Quien anhela ser Discípulo perfecto de Mi Corazón, se esfuerza por hacerse santo, como Yo también soy santo, por una santidad interior, verdadera y sólida.

La santidad es un gran bien, contiene todas las bendiciones deseables en la tierra, y engendra la bienaventuranza eterna en el cielo.

La santidad es la culminación de la virtud, la guardiana de la gracia santificante, la preservadora de la paz interior, la nodriza de la alegría del corazón y de la felicidad eterna.

La santidad es verdadera sabiduría, gloria real, riqueza inagotable.

Ser el más pequeño de los Santos es algo incomparablemente mayor que ser el más grande de todo el mundo.

¿Qué hay en este mundo que pueda compararse con justicia a la santidad? Ni la ciencia, ni la dignidad, ni el renombre, ni la posesión de todas las riquezas. Porque todas estas cosas son sólo de la tierra, duran sólo un momento; como vapores en el aire, brillan y pronto desaparecen. Pero la santidad es celestial y permanente, resplandece ante los habitantes del cielo como el sol; sí, cuando el sol se apague, seguirá brillando para siempre.

No se gloríe, pues, el sabio en su sabiduría, no se gloríe el fuerte en su fuerza, no se gloríe el rico en su riqueza; sino que el que se gloríe, que se gloríe en esto: en que me conoce y me ama; en que, por amor, me sigue, y así se santifica.

Hijo mío, si no comprendes estas cosas ahora, las comprenderás más tarde, incluso a pesar de ti mismo, cuando, al acercarse la muerte, tengas sentimientos más correctos.

Dime, si hoy tuvieras que morir, ¿qué preferirías, ser santo, o haber sido rey o Papa? "¡Quisiera Dios" -exclamó, al morir, uno que había sido gobernante y tenía alguna experiencia en la materia-, "quisiera Dios no haber sido nunca gobernante, sino, en su lugar, el menor de los santos siervos de Dios"! "¡Ojalá", suspiraba otro, "no hubiera llevado la tiara, sino que hubiera pasado mi vida en la cocina de alguna casa consagrada a Dios"!

No puedes valorar demasiado la santidad, ya que Yo mismo la he tenido en tanta estima que, para hacerla posible y fácil, derramé los tesoros de Mi Corazón, multipliqué los medios a Mis mayores costos y ordené todas las cosas para la santificación de los Elegidos.

Aspira, pues, a un bien tan grande, Hijo Mío, y esfuérzate magnánimamente por llegar a ser Santo.
